

UGANDAN ORIGIN. AMERICAN ROASTERS.

Company profile

Program summary | Prepared September 22, 2026

Who we are

African Waves Inc. is a US corporation importing, warehousing and distributing green coffee from Uganda for the US market.

The initial coffee program

Bugisu AA: washed Arabica from Mt. Elgon. Robusta Screen 18: Ugandan Robusta, selected to Screen 18. Drugar Arabica: dry-processed Ugandan Arabica. Lot-specific cupping notes and final specifications will accompany approved offers.

Contracted at origin

The program is supported by a 24-month master supply agreement with a UCDA-licensed exporter with its own milling. Contracted capacity is up to 100 containers per year. This is maximum contractual capacity, not confirmed inventory.

US distribution

First shipments are expected in late 2026. Warehouse locations, minimum lot sizes, confirmed arrival dates and stock quantities are to be announced.

Buyer onboarding

A signed W-9, registered company address, leadership information and final onboarding documentation must be supplied or approved by African Waves. No certifications or trade association memberships are represented in this summary.
